I know how it is to wake up with someones name in your head Every morning
I hope you changed
You should know
I'd be there for you even if we're friends
I hate to know there's someone attached who won't let go It's hard to let go I know it's hard to let go

But sometime
I feel tired You should feel tired from chasing after someone-Someone who's going in the wrong direction
"My whole world revolves around you, I live for you" you said
When I roll out of bed it's gonna be another crazy day with you watching my every move You're always around the corner and I wouldn't do it again if this is how it's gonna be in the end

You're taking me on a ride through good times and in strife You see we're not meant to be
I'd be there for you even if we're friends
Better off as friends But we'll still talk and hang out and we're not meant to be Just let go
it's easier than you know But noone not noone could hurt you like I did

We're not meant to be
Just let go

You're only hurting yourself
We were lead here for something to go wrong, to find where we belong You're taking it too far

and I wouldn't do it again
