When I look outside in the morning
I want to see the sun shinin'
I'd like to be reminded of this day
But I know in the back of my mind it will never be the same

I must've woke on the right side of the bed this morning
No hangover
Jumped out the shower Creased my khaks and I'm rollin' Holdin' no heat I didn't need it today Meeting at the park with all the homies barbeque in we gonna be eating today It's needless to say We met up and everything was proper Ribz chicken and beer
Not one trace of the coppers Got my face full of vodka Walk up to this proper chicken Finger lickin' politician
On how bout' we should be kickin' it I'm listening she's listening back Matter of fact we was interrupted by some ruckus sounds like shits gonna crack but take that back its just a little kin folks dancin' they ass in the grass lip sync'n Dem Rascalz no worries no hastles everything is copathetic loc we headed over to baby girls house we won't regret it smashed up some hash before I smacked up that ass wrestled her fast to the back and unraveled them pants then we woke up in the mornin' when I wake up in the morning I'll be stretchin' and yawning got a bad ass breezy on my side cause we were sexin' and bonin' then I flipped out my bed had her make some breakfast took two hits to the head then I threw on my necklace it was a lovely day with a perfect forecast everything's going my way what more could I ask peep the scenario turn up the stereo today's so beautiful so peep the way we roll gotta get in where you fit in hey partner I be pimpin' no question about it I'm irresistible to women cruising with the top down so everyone can see me today's a good day man huh you best believe me from dawn till dusk and the rise of the sun

I'm waking in the morning
Now my day has begun
So much in the atmosphere remains uncontained Always running wild ideas in my brain
How fortunate we are to experience creation Taking time out for a little meditation
On a positive vibe it will roll Into this next line so hear it flow
