I walk in faded times...

Walking aimless through the day
Put ahead how our life could be
And all the old times thrown away
You will be a part of me

Random thoughts of pale memories, fulfill my desire
Apparent unimportant things
Essential and real

I walk in faded times
I walk in faded times
Essential and real
I walk in faded times
I walk in faded times

The imagination, you look at me
Surrounds me everywhere
Every final step I take
You will be a part of me
To understand my destination
Fulfill my desire
The obligation to your remembrance
Essential and real

I walk in faded times
I walk in faded times
Essential and real
I walk in faded times
I walk in faded times

And sometimes I come to you
To clean your flowers from the snow
Then I'll take a little while

And when the morning greets the day
And the graveyard at your place
Then I walk

I walk in faded times
I walk in faded times
Essential and real
I walk in faded times
I walk in faded times
Essential and real

And sometimes I come to you
I walk in faded times
To clean your flowers from the snow
Then I'll take a little while
And when the morning greets the day
And the graveyard at your place
Then I walk

I walk in faded times...
