Growing up is hard to do
Surely I know that
Being strong is hard to be
Surely I know that

Now do this, now do that
Move to the other side
Now go near, now go back
Move to the other side

I know that my heart's with me
I've seen the days to be
Good days, bad days, change to be
Become a tragedy

When u come to this room
A fire start that doesn't stop
I see u come, I see u go
I hope u learned a lot

Daddy comes to the room
He's off to the moon
I dont like your breath at all
This room feels too small

He comes to my room
Say's I have to bloom
U cant do that to me
U know, u cant be that way with me

Hey, what's it gonna take to hear u
Cry my name
Hey, whatcha'gonna do
To me, oh
Hey, what's it gonna take to hear u
Cry of shame
Hey, what am I to do

Now he's in my room
Cant fight back so soon
What u do is killing

Every single part of me

Well, he comes to my room
He's bringing doom
Now, I wanna get out of here
But if I run away, will I be free.... NO...

Hey, what's it gonna take to hear u
Cry my name
Hey, whatcha'gonna do
To me, oh
Hey, what's it gonna take to hear u
Cry of shame
Hey, what am I to do
