For someone we've pushed and gambled
//Lost in every way and angle//
For someone we've had to struggle
//We couldn't get ourselves untangled//
(Finally got ourselves untangled?)

//I never know where to begin with you
We never talk quite like we should
Do angels have to depend on luck?
Your indulgence is not understood//

Sacrificing as we progress //wasting away//
With no idea how we've done this
//What have you to say//

//I never know where to begin with you
We never talk quite like we should
Do angels have to depend on luck?
Your indulgence is not understood//

For someone we've pushed and gambled
//Lost in every way and angle//
For someone we've had to struggle
//We couldn't get ourselves untangled//
(Finally got ourselves untangled?)
