So here I go again
The world is on my shoulders
I have to face it
Break out
Break out
Yeah here I am again
Repeating the same old story
'Cause nothing changes
It's sad but true yeah it's sad but true

The day will come for everyone
Time will take us all
One life to live for real yeah
One chance to give it all
Tomorrow holds a brand new day
A different game to play
No time to waste on yesterday

Time flies and people change
I miss the early days
I need to get my head straight
Take off
Take off
Into the morning light
I need to change this around
To live for real again
It's up to me yeah to start to breath

It's just me, it's just me
I need to break out be free
It's just me, it's up to me
