my mind wonders as i'm trying not to fall in love with you 'cause everytime i Awake i ponder on my mistakes of what i said, it is always my esteen that i Sure lose playing those stupid games that i always end up chasing you

I can't help myself anymore Rehearsing my thoughts as i'm too scared to come to your door
I pushed it all aside just to stand next to you But now you won't talk to me for something that i didn't do

It's not gonna work

And i'm trying not to think of you I'm all confused as i think of the things i would do I'm all shook up as i get all nervous inside My emotions are something that i will always hide my ways
