DWELLING IN BEULAH LAND

from Helen Schneyer's first album.

Far away the noise of strife upon my ear is falling,
Then I know the sins of earth beset on every hand;
Doubt and fear and things of earth in vain to me are calling,
None of these shall move me from Beulah Land.

Chorus: I'm living on the mountain underneath a cloudless sky
(Praise God!)
I'm drinking at the fountain that never shall run dry,
(oh yes) I'm feasting on the manna from a bountiful supply
For I am dwelling in Beulah Land.

Far below a storm of doubt upon my ear is beating,
Sons of men in battle long the enemy withstand;
Safe am I within the castle of God's word retreating Nothing here can reach me, 'tis Beulah Land.
Let the stormy breezes blow, their cry cannot alarm
me,
I am safely sheltered here, protected by God's hand;
Here the sun is always shining, here there's naught
can harm me
I am safe forever in Beulah Land.

Helen got it from Select Songs of Praise, published by the Judson
Press, composed and written by C. Austin Miles.
Copyright 1924,
by Samuel Beazley.
