i never though loving you like this now i understood you
i never though(loving you like this) but what do you thing that will happend to me... and i am desparte
and i am so sick and tired for waiting for... did is the thing that i hate about you now i know that you are not for me

but now i am so sick of waiting for you and i am desprate you know i am so sick of waiting for you

but now i know that you are not for me.
