"Perfect"

Everything I know is wrong
Every thought I have is gone
And every line I've crossed has led me here
If I could take it all away
Wash my sins and pain today
I wouldn't change a thing if you weren't here aren't here

I want you to know
I'll bleed if you go
I thought you should know oh oh oh...
Know oh oh oh...
You're perfect

Every word I write seems wrong
I know I've sang them all before
But every cliche seems too insincere
If I could stop the time I would
Before I mess with something good
I hope that your okay with me right here
Maybe you won't mind if I stay here

I want you to know
I'll bleed if you go
I thought you should know oh oh oh...
Know oh oh oh...
I want you to know
I'll bleed if you go
I thought you should know oh oh oh...
Know oh oh oh...

When all goes to hell
And crashes around me
I can't hold onto this bliss
When I'm hurting myself
As I have in mind to I'm reminded of all this
You're perfect
You're perfect
You're perfect
You're perfect

Maybe you won't mind if I step out into your light for just awhile
You make me feel like I'm alright
I love to watch you sleep or smile
You understand the way I am
I'm scared I'm tense and I pretend that It's alright yeah it's alright
I hope that you won't mind
Shining a little of your light
On me
Well shine just a little light
'Cause you're perfect
You're perfect
You're perfect...
