It's alright I'll come back later
Hope I didn't disturb anything
It's alright I'm perfectly happy
Just can't keep my hands still

It's alright, yes, I'll manage
Had some stuff to do
Was gonna let it wait, if only
But I'm not saying that to you

It's alright, I understand
No, no, there's no need
I'm okay
Really I am
Will I see you next week?

It's alright, I'm not lonely
The hall window is hard to look through
I simply needed to see you tonight
All the stupid things I do
It's alright, look, I'm smiling
Don't need your bullshit right now
How did you manage to make me feel so lost, so strange somehow

It's alright, I can come back sometime
Maybe we can go for that beer
Not I'm thinking, Back and out of the door
Trying to look like I just don't care

It's alright, I'm just gonna kick around this garbage can some more
Don't mind me, I'm just being childish
What did I have to come here for?

It's alright I can come back some time
Ofcourse we can go for that beer
Not I'm thinking, back and out of the door
Ain't gonna show my face around here no more
