Still remember the night when you said
You've found someone who's true
You dedicated so many songs to him
He would not dedicate for you

You can do anything that you want
But please, don't tell me that it's fine
You gotta shoot first or don't shoot at all
Cause now is not the time...

You shoulda said something, not disguising the truth
You shoulda said something, what a lie he sold to you
There's no smile, on your face
I'm watching something, that is so good - go to waste
You shoulda said something.

He got his own band, but you don't understand
That it don't make him good
This song will never be Mozart
It's just three chords and the truth

You can do anything that you want
But please, don't hang me out to dry
You gotta shoot first or don't shoot at all
Cause now is not the time...

You shoulda said something, not disguising the truth
You shoulda said something, what a lie he sold to you
There's no smile, on your face
I watch it sink so low without a trace
You shoulda said something.
