Oh say can you see? With the blind fold so tight
What so proudly we hail is nothing more than a faction Whose dull stripes and false star through the murderous fights

On the TV we watch as our children die starving
And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gives proof to us all, that the flag doesn't care
Oh say does that star spangle banner of hate
For the land of the deceived and the home of the saved

Yeah, everything bothers me
Just about everything that I see
No need for a flag or a country
Raise your finger if you agree

The problems won't go away
If we keep our rage at bay
The filth and slime will always stay
If we choose to ignore and play

The stars and strips are prison bars
They won't let you get too far
The rule over many, by the few
You can't police my mind 'cause I won't let you

Goodbye America! Fuck you America!

Pledge allegiance to yourself
Not greed, power, war, and wealth
Remember you were born a HUMAN BEING NOT A PART OF THEIR MACHINE

Goodbye America! Fuck you America!
