Fuck off to Nazi idea worshiping Ku Klux Klan Preaching power for religion, church is getting right again
I say there's nothing wrong with hate, it's something I embrace
But don't hate a fucking person cause the color of his face
You're screaming in the suburbs, a middle class brat Sometimes I fucking wonder where your head is at The world is full of problems, don't blame it on the Jews I'd rather be friends with them than the fucking likes of you

Race riot
It's past debate
The war is on It's fueled on hate

There is no master race
So open up your eyes
Fuck Nazi, religion, KKK
It's all a fucking lie
