step inside!
step inside!

(you never know unless you try!)

you're entering a door way a gate way to death, don't stay on earth come with me and take your final breath, no more pain and torture, it's time to give them some they'll wish they never picked on you your time has fucking come,

will you step inside
come on in and take you life (kill yourself)
will you step inside
as you take your fucking life

your standing in a doorway but are you coming in you pains become pleasure commit your final sin, there's no heaven from suicide that what they always say, you've done so much wrong, you won't go there anyway

(kill yourself)

(you'll never know unless you try) razor blades across tender flesh you wanna see whats on the other side, fun to your head close you eyes

rope around your neck on the edge of a seat

wits end, cant sleep, will you be at peace
on the other side,
is it a promise
or just another threat!
