"Go Seek Your Rights"

Visit "Go Seek Your Rights" on MotoLyrics.com

There comes a time in the life of every man
When you've got to face reality
Don't you hurt your brother man too much 'cos

No man is an island, tell you
No man stands alone

Go seek your rights, I don't say you must fight
But if it ever, ever, ever comes to the test
You must surely, surely, surely try, try your best 'cos

No man is an island, tell you
No man stands alone

Look at the growing trees, they're losing their color
Watch them as you go along each and every hour
Then if man should fight against man
[Incomprehensible] to give a helping hand, Lord

No man is an island, tell you, no man stands alone
Don't you hear it now

Go seek your rights, I don't say you must fight
But if it ever, ever, ever comes to the test
You must surely, surely, surely, try and try your best
'cos

No man is an island, tell you
No man stands alone
Don't you hear that now

No man is an island, tell you, no man stands alone
No man is an island, an island, an island
No man stands alone never, no never stands alone
No man is an island, an island, an island
