Ripping through your soul a desire to be out of control
--how does she feel tonight, tossing genders feeling out of sight
Trying to possess what her mother seemed to forget
--on a seesaw elevating, christian soul not hesitating

No need for education
--you liar, liar
It's time for liberation
--facing your fears

I know your name, and I've see you
What you're gonna do so walk on through

I watched in colors, and I see you
What you're going through so walk on through

Walk, on through

Oh yes it seems like she's reading from some dirty magazine
--looking for exoneration, acts as though she's celebrating
Rising to the modern nation, cut down from observation
What I see I don't regret, I'm not your tv .. tv pet

No need for education
--you liar, liar
It's time for liberation
--no looking back, no looking back
I know your name, and I've seen you
What you're gonna do so walk on through

I watched in colors, and I see you
What you're going through so walk on through

Walk, on through

Listen, listen to my soul
It's what, what I've come to be
Tell me, that you ain't so cold

I've got some individual, individuality now

No need for education

--you liar, your lies

It's time for liberation

--no looking back, no looking back no

You thrive on segregation

--facing your fears

I know your name, and I've seen you

What you're gonna do so walk on through

I watched in colors, and I see you

What you're going through so walk on through

Walk

On walk

On through
