I don't try anymore, 'cause only booze improves with age, And I don't cry anymore, but sometimes my skies get cloudy I don't fight anymore, but sometimes my fists clench up in rage Take a walk upside yourself, But I don't mind anymore 'cause now my mind is wasted on a dream And sometimes them clouds rain down upon a dream, Get to know the person behind the face, Is it someone you can really love? Rain Is it someone who looks down from above? With a view of the rain I don't pray anymore 'cause too many of God's children die, yes they do, I don't smile anymore, too many smiling faces lie, And I don't love anymore, you said you knew where love is, I never knew where you was coming from, But I don't mind anymore 'cause now my mind is wasted on a dream Mind wasted on a dream You've got to Take a walk beside yourself, Get to know the person behind the face, Is it someone you can really love? Is it somebody who looks down from above? With a view of the rain Rain View of the rain Take a walk upside yourself, Get to know the person behind the face, Is it someone you can really love? Is it somebody who looks down from above? With a view of the rain View of the rain Rain View of the rain View of the rain View of the rain.
