I haven't lost anything except my mind (except my mind)
Expect a thousand confessions that you will not find
I try to take off my head sometimes because I can't escape the memories
I haven't lost anything except my mind (except my mind)

Chorus

You could be empty
And I can be right here empty with you
Or you could be hollow
And I can be right here hollow with you
If you wanna say goodbye to everything
I could say goodbye, too
And I could be right here empty with you

I haven't wasted a thing except my time (except my time)
Forget the treasures we've burned because we'll be just fine
I try to take off my head sometimes because I can't escape for the life of me
I haven't lost anything except my mind (my mind)

Chorus

You could be empty
And I can be right here empty with you
Or you could be hollow
And I can be right here hollow with you
If you wanna say goodbye to everything

I could say goodbye, too
And I could be right here empty with you

Instead of going under ground
Instead of calling them out
Instead of running 'cause you're still breathing
Instead of swallowing lies
Instead of buried alive
Let's twist the knife 'till they can't stop bleeding

If you need a confession
Iâ'm guilty
Lets twist the knife Â'till they canÂ't stop bleeding
Do you think I feel sorry?
Forgive me
Lets twist the knife Â'till they canÂ't stop bleeding
Instead of going under ground
Instead of calling them out
Lets twist the knife Â'till they canÂ't stop bleeding!

Chorus

You could be empty
And I can be right here empty with you
Or you could be hollow
And I can be right here hollow with you
If you wanna say goodbye to everything
I could say goodbye, too
And I could be right here empty with you
