This poison's my intoxication
I broke the needle off in my skin picked the scabs and picked the bleeding and assumed that it was all in vain
A positive scab that's never healing
Calloused hit me in the face
A burning bridge that's so misleading
Poison's more potent now with the flame

Let it bleed
Take the red for what it's worth woah
Watch the fire
Fill your lungs with smoke for the last time
If you feel like dying you might wanna sing

The fire department couldn't drown the city
They didn't even try to wash it clean
And what did you think that I was sober?
Put me out cause I'm on fucking fire
A positive scab that's never healing
Regret that I kept this clean
The most that I can do for you is keep on lying It's not a lie if you can let it sing

Let it bleed
Take the red for what it's worth woah

Watch the fire
Fill your lungs with smoke for the last time
If you feel like dying you might wanna sing!

Ohoh you might wanna sing
Ahaha you might wanna sing
Hahah you might wanna sing
Hahahaha sing!
You might wanna sing!
You might wanna sing!
You might wanna sing or scream at...

This poison's my intoxication
I broke the needle off in my skin
Picked the scabs and picked the bleeding

yeah assumed that it was all in vain

Let it bleed

Take the red for what it's worth, woah

Watch the fire

Mamma fill your lungs with smoke for the last time

If you feel like dying

If you feel like dying

If you feel like dying, You might wanna sing

Hahaha You might wanna sing

Haha You might wanna sing

Ha you might wanna sing or scream at...
