I've gotta take this moment just to push you down,
Spin you around with the foot on the back of your neck,
Up on the curb, with the pressure on your teeth.
(Your gonna take this, Your gonna take this!)

I watch the rain make a puddle to get you soaked,
This fallen word cried comin' out of your throat,
Sticky time for the shallow believer...
(Not gonna take this, not gonna take this!)

I swear your head is bigger than us all, getting bigger...
(Go slit your own throat, slit your own throat!)
You're more turned on than anyone could be by yourself.
(Go slit your own throat, slit your own throat!)

Just like a tick, like an itch at the back of your throat,
You miss the beat while I'm hanging on every note,
You gotta choke cause you swallowed a problem.
(Your gonna take this, your gonna take this!)

I see them slide, see the tower that gets you soaked,
This kind it does it, you bleed, I fuckin' already know,
It's tragic time for the shallow believer.
(Your gonna take this, your gonna take this!)

I swear your head is bigger than us all, getting bigger...
(Go slit your own throat, slit your own throat!)
You're more turned on than anyone could be by yourself.
(Go slit your own throat, slit your own throat!)
