I woke up this morning, feelin the same way
I'm lookin' at you like, why are you right here Why we going through all of this Just because we in love Even family trippin' out like we ain't grown enough
And it's like I don't wanna be in love no more Got me trippin', thinkin bout what it is that I'm doin'
But the rules and the game ain't changed because I'm in love

Didn't mean to, didn't mean to, didn't mean to fall
But you ain't right there to catch me
That's why I'm so focused when I'm thinkin of you baby
But everybody wanna see us give it up

I really didn't mean to fall
better get use to her, here in right here she ain't never, she ain't never goin' nowhere
she ain't never, she ain't never goin' nowhere
she the one that's gon' have my baby it's so clear she's the one that's gon' be showin' me love,
When you ain't there
Please believe it
if you use to me, you better get use to her

Tell your family I don't mean no disrespect

But trust me later on down the road they'll get it when I prove to them you're the one that changed me
And we have our own little girl, that looks just like you But I don't wanna prove myself no more tryna figure out what it is they hate me for but the rules and the game ain't changed because we
in love

Didn't mean to, didn't mean to, didn't mean to fall
But you ain't right there to catch me
that's why I'm so focused
when I'm thinkin of you baby
but everybody wanna see us give it up

I really didn't mean to fall
better get use to her, here in right here
she ain't never, she ain't never goin' nowhere
she ain't never, she ain't never goin' nowhere she's the one that's gon' have my baby it's so clear she's gon' be the one that's givin' me love
when you ain't there
please believe it
If you use to me, you better get use to her
