oh can you hear me baby
can you hear me baby?
listen..
you know everybody is always talking about change now dont get me wrong change can be beautiful something is just still the same you know if this were our last night here on this planet how would you feel

what would you say pretend that you never ever will see me
after tonight, after today and I tell me you rather fight and hold the grudge against me instead of makin love tonight ooh is that what you sayin baby

I never be flawless never be perfect no matter how bad you want me to be I'll be your hero as soon as you let go and stop having me in your fantasy lets just live life lets just have fun maybe inside we can be as one but if we never do then thats okay all that I'm trying to say is

I aint gonna change (oh no) just beein someone else is too damn hard and I dont want you to change (oh no) cause I take you just the way you are and ooh, I never wanted anything more and I didnt understand before - but now I do all that I ask is, just be you now what if tomorrow came and I change and you started doing things that you claim would be better, what if I did whatever to push the ease that we'd always be together would that make you satisfied to have me home every night no way that I really missed the lights could you live with yourself if that'd happen babe

tell me where is the girl the one who used to standin as the light in my world where is she at

cause I want her back can we go back cause who I'm looking at forgot how to love
I want the one that gave me love the one that I could go to who used to trip on all the little things baby I'm just sayin that change aint alway happy goes

I'm not tryna fight I'm just try to grow
but in my own time
and if you didnt know
I care and I dont want nobody but you you gotta let me love you in the way I know I never let you go
if you feel the same baby then I'll stay but dont make me change

I aint gonna change baby hear me out
girl you make my day
you'd all my life
I give everything
just to make it right I'm so tired of fighting every every every every night never wanted anything more and I didnt understand it before - but now I do
