Summer goes, winter slow, autumn leaves but you're still around (Yeah, yeah)

And my feelings grow because you know how to captivate a crowd.

When you turn on that smile (Yeah)

The look of love, you wear it well

Baby, love looks good on you

I knew you got it all, I can tell

Because you always look brand new.

The wind it blows and the snow is gone.

But raindrops dance on my window, babe.

(No oh, yeah yeah yeah)

And whenever you put it on, you shine like a charm suga.

I hope your wardrobe doesn't change

(Oh no, keep it right there suga)

The look of love, you wear it well.

Baby, love looks good on you.

I know you got it all, I can tell.

Because you always look brand new.

Love looks good on you.

Oh girl I love your energy.

You're doing something, love.

A total new identity when you turn on that smile.

Even before you make your move.

Girl your presence, ooh, that will do.

Love looks good on..

The look of love, you wear it well.

Baby, love looks good on you.

I know you got it all, I can tell.

Because you always look brand new.
