Cut me, cut me with your tongue then love me when it's over

You don't even know just how you much you taunt me
Taunting and provoking, keep words unspoken
Pandora's box is open

Blame brings pain, accusations seal these walls
Walls built up to shield from pain
Pain of finding fault, revolving back to pain
And we need to stop

Just like a revolver babe, just like a revolver
(It goes around)
Just like a revolver babe, but I'd rather resolve it babe
Just like a revolver babe, just like a revolver
(It goes around)
Just like a revolver babe, but we gotta resolve it babe

Piercing, piercing with my actions, spitefully ignore you
I don't even care just how much you take
Bitten and it's potent, you hate it and I know it
Pandora's box is open

Blame brings pain, accusations seal these walls
Walls built up to shield from pain
Pain of finding fault, revolving back to pain
And we need to stop

Just like a revolver babe, just like a revolver
(It goes around)
Just like a revolver babe, but I'd rather resolve it babe
Just like a revolver babe, just like a revolver
(It goes around)
Just like a revolver babe, but we gotta resolve it babe

These walls get high baby
These walls get high baby
These walls get high baby
It won't ever come down

These walls get high baby
These walls get high baby

These walls get high baby
It won't ever come down

Round and round like the game roulette
Step on up kid and place your bet
Round and round is the route we choose
Play that game man, we all gonna lose

Just like a revolver babe, just like a revolver
(It goes around)
Just like a revolver babe, but I'd rather resolve it babe
Just like a revolver babe, just like a revolver
(It goes around)
Just like a revolver babe, but we gotta resolve it babe
