If you got something good, don't take it for granted.
Hear me.

It's time I learn, a lesson, from my drama
With the wall of this so that you dont have to feel the pain
I just gotta tell you, that one man loss is, another man's gain.

Yeah

Now you're the type to take your girlfriend, for granted.
You should treat her like the finest thing on this here planet.
And I know you're gonna wanna hit them, the minute
that you see her with them.;
Cause you got caught slippin.

slippin, slippin, slippin
now your girls gone missin.
missin, missin,
now youre all alone,
wishin, wishin, wishin.
that there was something you could do she's with them
because you got caught slippin.

Woah, how soon my brothers that we forget, yeah
All the thangs we did just to get her, mmm
All the game that we spit.
All the flowers,phone conversations for hours.

Now weeee don't talk that long.
And the love making, ain't that strong.
Feeling like, she doing something wrong.
(cause you and I know)
She's moving on , gottah be strong.
All because you were slippin.

Slippin, slippin, slippin.
And that's why she gone missin,
Missin, missin, missin.

Now your at home,
Wishin, wishin, wishin.
That you could rewind to the time, she was yours.
You got caught slippin.

(ooooohh, ohhhhh. ooooh, yeaaaa. ohhhh, Ohhhhh, oh oh.)

all because you were out (out of) slippin.

home, but she wont.
