All my ladies say, ha ha ho
All my ladies say, ha ha ho
All my ladies say, ha ha ho

All my ladies stay down, stay down, stay down, stay down, stay down.. stay down, stay down, stay down, stay down..

Never would believe, If I cheat, could you be the one thats strong enough for us to withstand our love, yeah.

If they started spreading rumours about me, would you believe, or would you heard and disregard, be a goddess and stand by my side,
down to ride.

I don't need someone thats over protective, to possessive, no,
that would be the one thats gonna push me away, here what I'm saying..

I need someone that's independent but play the position, yeah, no women need to know what not to say, don't you hear what I'm saying.
If you with me then you gotta, stay down, stay down,
stay down,
stay down, stay down..

you gotta stay down, stay down, stay down, stay down,
stay down..
