When you give it all, you get it all
What happened to you yeah
From the beginning to what I was getting
But I was with it, and I'll admit that
She was clear it was a kinda thing
It wouldn't be easy for me to let it go
For my time I got money, but money don't buy time
I got a head someone got left behind
The world is yours, your signed this dotted line,
And in no time, I hear,

Money, clothes, fancy cars
Big old cribs, platinum on the wall, seven grammys
Sold out concerts damn I've been working hard
Private jets to France, many women
I didn't have a ball
You can say I've made it
But I've faded

Cause I miss you
Can we go back?
But the issue
This time we can't get back
What happened to you, yeah, come back
Cause I miss you,
Can we go back?
What happened to you
What happened to you

Did what I wanted, freaked out the honies
I stayed on they mind, mine was on the money
Had whatever, whenever hot tub forever
Black young and clever

When you give it all, you get it all
Love would be the only reason to look back
And when you turn it on, you can't turn it off
But picture me complaining with all this,

Money, clothes, fancy cars
Big old cribs, platinum on the wall, seven grammys
Sold out concerts damn I've been working hard
Private jets to France, many women
I didn't have a ball
You can say I've made it

But I've faded

Cause I miss you

Can we go back?

But the issue this we can't get back

What happened to you, yeah, come back

Cause I miss you,

Can we go back?

What happened to you

What happened to you

What sense does it make to have everything and nothing at the same time...

Where are you?

I need you, yeah

I'm looking for you, girl, come and share all these

Money, clothes, fancy cars

Big old cribs, platinum on the wall, seven grammys

Sold out concerts damn I've been working hard

Private jets to France, many women

I didn't have a ball

You can say I've made it

But I've faded

Cause I miss you

Can we go back?

(once i'm with it two at a time)

But the issue this we can't get back

(time we can't back down)

What happened to you, yeah, come back

(oh, baby)

Cause I miss you,

Can we go back?

What happened to you

What happened to you

I'm happy for you wherever you are
