it ain't your booty it's your beauty i been watching you for a minute girl and i like the way that you carry yourself such confidence in every move can i get just a minute girl to talk to you heard with just one look you can fall in love but i never believed until i saw you girl only known you for 30 seconds or so but it feels like forever and i don't want to let you go tell me what i gotta do girl i'm trying to get with you, come on

tell me what i gotta do girl i'm trying to make a move what you're into girl? is it cars or bling? or do you prefer the sentimental things? whatever it is i'll lace you girl all i need is you to tell me what i gotta do to make it work

come on come on come on come on
tell me what i gotta do

girl you need to be with me i can gÃve you all you need see you where you ought to be so come on come on come on
