I don't know when they invented electricity but it was a day when the mystery perished a day when the night was lost the candles died out and the smile became so weak I don't know when the air is filled with toxicity but it keeps getting harder and harder to breath although the trees are still green and the flowers have a smell so sweet

I drink the water from the source drink the water from your eyes my life is melancholy my life is melancholy skies melancholy

It's an electric moon
it's an electric sun (people at last I see coming)
just take my hand and run
It's an electric moon

come into my life
the fairy tale has just begun

Only I can reach you darling I just can't reach you, you're so far from a lonely planet planet of the only star star

It's an electric moon
it's an electric sun
(people at last I see coming)
It's an electric moon
it's an electric sun
the fairy tale, the fairy tale
