

Val Emmich

"Break"

Visit "Break" on MotoLyrics.com so you call and you tell me i should take a train come and meet you up in portland, maine i'm on my way

cuz you know i could use a bit of traveling i've been trying to escape my skin what better way?

i gotta get away from me and all the roles i've played gotta find a way to speak and mean the words i say each day there's a hundred different choices i can make it's time for a clean break look around, doesn't matter where i choose to go who i'm with or what i think i know i feel so low

on a plane, i'm flying to a foreign place just hoping that i can misplace all the baggage i take

i gotta get away from me and all the roles i've played
gotta find a way to speak and mean the words i say
each day there's a hundred different choices i can make
it's time for a clean break
time for a clean break
before i break

time for a clean break

Visit Val Emmich page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.