everywhere that i turn love is getting burned by a pretty face and a cocktail so much pain is left in the trail

so hurry up
you better cover up
before they catch you

i'm losing faith faith in love and i'm losing it quick everybody's cheating on the one their with last night's crush doesn't mean that much this morning this morning i woke up wishing i still believed in one true love, one you never deceive as i looked to the woman sleeping next to me and felt nothing
i felt nothing

sober up and it hits you you're marriage is just a farce 'cause you subscribe to the motto "it's just sex, it ain't about the heart"

last night's crush doesn't mean that much this morning
this morning i woke up wishing i still believed in
nothing
i felt nothing

you better hurry up

last night's crush doesn't mean that much this morning
this morning i woke up wishing i still believed in
nothing
i felt nothing...

for so long i've sung along to those words in those early Beatles songs such pretty melodies
nothing more just space to fill a song i've sung along for so long to those early Beatles songs such timeless melodies
just the feeling that i'm.... losing faith faith in love and i'm losing it quick
last night's crush doesn't mean that much this morning
i felt nothing...

losing faith faith in love and i'm losing it quick
losing faith faith in love and i'm losing it quick
i felt nothing...
i felt nothing...
