finished college as an English major waiting tables and smoking paper got a habit for misbehavior now shot the sheriff cuz he tried to stop me made him bleed and I got off scot-free the karma cops were out having coffee anyhow all we need is the sun above and the oxygen from trees (and tons of money)

are you holding on? its all upending drunken heads and over spending kiss me now the world is ending step in line for the decadent decline working hard and paying taxes to buy a house with limited access keep your daughter from the bloody axes now cuz Kelly Meyers wants to grow up famous he feels his place is with the Hollywood A-list she's got no talent but money can change this anyhow all we need is vacation time and a shiny white set of teeth (via corporate funding)

are you holding on? its all upending
step in line for the decadent decline from his seat in the oval office the president marks a major crisis his favorite horse has become a marxist so are you holding on? its all upending drunken heads and over spending

step in line for the decadent decline

step in line things are fine just kiss me now the world is ending
step in line for the decadent decline
