see you're rotting again my friend seems that nothing you do ever ends up the way you hoped it would and that's well understood at the picnic we're just ants each with a long list of plans til that giant foot hits the ground and squashes us down

you ___ are not the only one lonely
you ___ are not the only one lonely

so we walk to our favorite bar watch the black haired girl play guitar strumming the saddest songs I've heard think I'm falling for her cuz we only want a connection someone who shares our lack of direction so I watch PT Anderson and I feel better again

there's a boy on a city street does his best to hide his grief so he keeps a diary that he'll let nobody read

(cuz i only want a connection) (someone who shares my lack of direction)
