we've been talking for hours now sugar passion ignited by wine every word is the honest truth but it seems like i'm reading the lines

but i'm not fooling you do anything you want me to cuz everything i've said to you is trite but true yes being with you makes everything seem brand new i wanna buy you some flowers now darling but it feels like it's so overdone what can you say when it's all been written without sounding boring and dumb cuz i'm not fooling you do anything you want me to

we've been talking for hours baby and i haven't uttered a line that i haven't already said to another nothing fresh comes to mind

yes being with you makes everything seem brand new

i'm not fooling you
i'm not fooling you
i'm not fooling you
