Don't go to sleep
Don't turn the lights off yet
We're talking in circles
Haven't solved nothing yet
We've been our teeth into the problem again
But left it to bleed
Our sheets are soaked in red

Don't go to sleep just to wake up brand new
Cuz in the morning we hide from the truth
There's still a chance that we might make it thru
Gotta fix it now
Or just cut it loose

It's easy to thrive
When the sun shines bright overhead
Daily distractions hide what needs to be said
But the night keeps revealing
What we've tried so hard to forget
We say goodnight
And the cycle starts once again

Don't go to sleep just to wake up brand new
Cuz in the morning we hide from the truth
There's still a chance that we might make it thru
Gotta fix it now
Or just cut it loose

We're on the edge of breaking
We're on the edge
The ground below is shaking
We're on the edge
We're on the edge

Don't go to sleep just to wake up brand new
Cuz in the morning we hide from the truth
Girl you and i we've got something to prove
Gotta fix it now
Or just cut it loose

We're on the edge

We're on the edge
