"Billie Holiday"

hey, i can't hear what you say and i got lost in a maze the world got swallowed by the place how, i'm standing hearing your name you're moving to the sound of a train that carries Billie Holliday away and when the sun shines down, it shines on both of us and when the storm falls down, it falls too high to touch and you say that you can't get away but the night is just enough for both of us both of us, both of us

both of us

you, don't look so confused it's all been ... improved i guess i don't read the news here haven't ... disguise and see the stone blast in your eyes
