The way you want to hold me is unfair
The way you try to stop and fix it when there's nothing left to fix again
And if I was the one to be unkind Anyway you're out of sight, and just in case you changed your mind,
I'm here again
The drenched vest is sticking to your hips
It cannot move from left to right, and up and down your legs and knees
And if it's time for me to be afraid
Everything is by the way, and you changed you hair again
In color and shape

I can learn to move my feet
And swing my rhythm 'round your heartbeat
You learned how to sway to make the best thing
Try to make it happen
Try and hang it on

Away is just a word and you know how To move and swing and dance and sing and slowly work your way away
And if I was the one to stay here
With no one here I'd lead and steer
While your Hands slide way thru the steel
Of this ballroom

I can learn to move my feet
And swing my rhythm 'round your heartbeat
You learned how to sway to make the best thing
Try to make it happen
Try and hang it on
