My fears are crawling I can feel 'em breathin' on my radio deck
And help is needed, don't wanna go out before it's summer
I'm under suspect by myself since I started to watch the dayglow
My vasoconstrictors just can't seem to put my legs on

But I can't stop to make it happen
And it's my first day off

It's a hard steer turn, but I can make it now I feel it I got brown eyed ghosts waitin' to jump right off my suitcase
But it's my first day off

I can't stop to make it happen
Colors are lying in the sunset of my first day off

We've been sayin' a lot of sayin,
We've been sleepin' most of the day
In my first day off

We've been sayin' a lot of sayin,
We've been sleepin' most of the day
In my first day off

Things stay the same, they keep pushin' in the left side of my brain, but it's my first day off,
It's my first day off,
It's my first day off,
And I'm blinded by the sunshine
