In the ATL,
everybody floss everytime i go out everything cost
Only money talks on monday to sunday
Never only one day, party like a payday

Excuse my while i make my way to the front of the line at the club i just jumped out the truck if i'm in a ___? ___? ___
you can find me on stage with a CD in my hand talking to the DJ

if i ever lose my cool gotta take it up top where its gold and its gritty whassup New York City they dont give a fuck bout your story or your love everybody gotta hustle when your living up North

[Chorus]:

I make big money, i drive big cars
everybody know me (everybody know me)
everybody know me (everybody know me)
everybody know me (everybody know me)
I love big things, i like big bling
everybody know me (everybody know me)
everybody know me (everybody know me)
everybody know me (everybody know me)

When i wanna get away im M I A Club Sobe they know me, whos up Hossee *?
Transport me to Long B, hay bay bay
if i really wanna party, Hello LA Pedro all day, hay paparats-ay.
In the middle of the west i throw it this way
When i really wanna party its Sandro Bay if your thinking what i'm thinking Everybody say Hey! Everybody say Oh!
Everybody bring the party from the 5th to the floor
Spend a little more, if your not making it then fake it Then no matter what the cost is show em who the boss is.

Say...[Chorus]:

I make big money, i drive big cars
everybody know me (everybody know me)
everybody know me (everybody know me)
everybody know me (everybody know me)
I love big things, i like big bling
everybody know me (everybody know me)
everybody know me (everybody know me)
everybody know me (everybody know me)
