Goin' down Geneva
Hey, movin' on from here
Goin' down Geneva, give me a helpin' hand
It ain't easy, make it on the exile plan

Last night I played a gig in Salzburg, outside in the
pourin' rain
Last night I played a gig in Salzburg, outside in the
pourin' rain
And we flew from there to Montreux and my heart was filled with pain

Down on the bottom, oh to my new pair of shoes
Ho, oh down on the bottom, down to my brand new pair of shoes
Come down by the lakeside, think about my baby blue
Baby blue

Trombone!

Chris Farlowe!

Vince Taylor used to live here, nobody's even heard of him
Vince Taylor used to live here, no one has even heard of him
Just who he was, just where he fits in Cadillac Car!

Well, my baby drove up in a brand new Cadillac car
Yeah, my baby drove up in a brand new Cadillac
She said, 'Daddy, I ain't never comin' back'

Well, the Cadillac rollin', goin' 'bout ninety-five

Well, the Cadillac rollin', goin' 'bout ninety-five
When me and my baby, was goin' side by side
What a minute!

(Instrumental)

Vince Taylor used to live here
Nobody's even heard of him, ain't that a shame?
Vince Taylor used to live here
Nobody's even heard of him, ain't that a shame?
Just who he was, just how he fits in (Instrumental & harmonica solo)

Just who he was Just where he fits in.
