No way Pedro, no way Jose
I just wanna know, are you goin' my way?
Oh, I saw you standin' by the borderline
You can never make up your mind

No way Cisco, no way Pancho
Why don't you meet me back at the rancho?
Well, if you get there, please don't be late
How can I get you now if I hesitate?

No way Kemosabe, no way Tonto
Come here quick, you'll make it, Pronto
Well, when you head them, off at the pass

Baby, I just want a love to last

No way Pedro, no way Jose
Just wanna know, are you goin' my way?
Oh, I saw you standin' by the borderline
I just want you to make up your goddamn mind

You'll never make up your mind
Hey, you'll never make up your mind
