I saw you standing with the wind and the rain in your face
And you were thinking 'bout the wisdom of the leaves and their grace
When the leaves come falling down
In September, when the leaves come falling down

And at night the moon is shining on a clear cloudless sky
And when the evening shadows fall, I'll be there by your side
When the leaves come falling down
In September, when the leaves come falling down

Follow me down, follow me down, follow me down
To the place beside the garden and the wall
Follow me down, follow me down
To the space before the twilight and the dawn

Oh, the last time I saw, Paris in the streets, in the rain And as I walk along the boulevards with you, once again
And the leaves come falling down
In September, when the leaves, leaves come falling down

Follow me down, follow me down, follow me down

To the place between the garden and the wall
Follow me down, follow me down
To the space between the twilight and the dawn

And as I'm looking at the color of the leaves in your hand
As we're listening to Chet Baker on the beach in the sand
When the leaves come falling down
Oh, on September, when the leaves come falling down Oh, when the leaves come falling down Yeah, in September, when the leaves come falling
down

When the leaves come falling down
In September, when the leaves, leaves come falling
down
When the leaves come falling down in September, in the rain
When the leaves come falling down

When the leaves come falling down in September, in
the rain
When the leaves come falling down
