You give your hand to me and then you say hello
And I can hardly speak my heart is beating so
And anyone can tell, you think, you know me well
You don't know me

Now if you don't know the one who longs at you each night
And longs to kiss your lips and longs to hold you tight
You know I am just a friend, that's all I've ever been
You don't know me

I never knew the art of making love
'Til my heart yearned with love you
If rain and shine let my chance go by
The chance, you might have loved me too

You give your hand to me and then you say goodbye
I watched you walk away beside some lucky guy
To never, never know, the one who loves you so
'Cause you don't know me

I never knew the art of making love
'Til my heart yearned with love you
If rain and shine let my chance go by
The chance you might have loved me too
