Walk on by
Is it a lie?
A false smile
can always hide

But I don't know you

Walk on by
With your smile
It's a lie
Lie to me

And he smiles
And he lies
As you cry
(Cry with me)

In this mellow state of mind
He will always tend to shine
So I beg you, walk on by

Settle down
Pine to be found
Found by me
But I know
You are meant to be bound
Bound to him

In this mellow state
there's so much for you to find
So I beg you

In this mellow state of mind
he will always shine

Shine
