Did It ever cross your mind, boy?
Did it ever cross your mind, boy?

Thinking that I would face
Knowing that I would never see your face
I miss you baby everyday and night
It just ain't right

Did it ever cross your mind, boy?
You would break my heart
Knowing that you would tear this all apart
These tears that run across so hard at night
It just ain't right

Did it ever cross your mind?
That I'd be left behind
Did you ever stop and think?
You'd lose me in a blink
Did it ever cross your mind?
I probably said a lie
Did it ever cross your mind?
Knowing that just ain't right

No, no
It just ain't right
No, no
It just ain't right

Miss you now you're gone
Deep down I'm trying so hard to move on
I face up now I'm lying to myself
It just ain't right

Did it ever cross your mind?
Saw the kind of thing
And all my friends are watching as I sink
Nothing no one can do to help
It just ain't right

Did it ever cross your mind?
That I'd be left behind
Did you ever stop and think?

You'd lose me in a blink
Did it ever cross your mind?
I probably said a lie
Did it ever cross your mind?
Knowing that just ain't right

No, no
It just ain't right
No, no
It just ain't right

Now you're gone
I'm trying, trying to move on
Now you're gone
I'm trying, trying to move on
Now you're gone
I'm trying, trying to move on
Now you're gone
Did it ever cross your mind?

Did it ever cross your mind?
That I'd be left behind
Did you ever stop and think?
You'd lose me in a blink
Did it ever cross your mind?
I probably said a lie
Did it ever cross your mind?
Knowing that just ain't right

No, no
It just ain't right
No, no
It just ain't right
NO, no
It just ain't right
No, no
It just ain't right
