I remember the first day that I met you
You really caught my attention
Didn't know I was looking for a rescue
Wasn't thinking that hard
Now and then I was there in the moment
I was ready for nothing
Doesn't mean that I really don't love you
While I'm breaking your heart

Don't ask why
Before we get too close just let me
Say goodbye
It's easier this way
Don't ask why
Before you ask the question and I
Die Inside
Just let me walk away

I feel bad that I let my past hurt you
Cause I really didn't mean to
I was lost, I was lucky you found me
But it only got worse
Right now while you're looking right at me
The emotion's so scary
Doesn't mean that I really don't love you
While I'm making you hurt

Don't ask why
Before we get too close just let me
Say goodbye
It's easier this way
Don't ask why
Before you ask the question and I
Die Inside
Just let me walk away

I know I'll miss you more than ever
I wish there was another way
You see my words can only hurt you
'Till it shows on your face
Away
Oh

Don't ask why
Before we get too close just let me
Say goodbye
It's easier this way (it's easier this way)
Don't ask why
Before you ask the question and I
Die Inside
Just let me walk away (just let me walk away)

Don't ask why
Before we get too close just let me
Say goodbye (goodbye)
It's easier this way (It's easier this way)
Don't ask why
Before you ask the question and I
Die Inside
Just let me walk away
