I always sleep so much better when it's raining There's something 'bout the rhythm as the water hits the pane
I could stay in bed all God damn day, and sweetly waste away
'Cause I'm blind to all the good you see, and prefer a fine tragedy

When all is well I get nervous, something's missing If only you could tell me it's okay, and me listen, 'cause it already is
Oh

The air grows thin as summer fades I miss, I change
The old crisp and color autumn days appear in my view 'cause this blue, you caught the splendor that's been staring me in my face and the spectrum of the colors just change into blue

When all is well I get nervous, something's missing
If only you could tell me it's okay, and me listen, 'cause
already is

and it's all true, and good and merry 'cause you see through the tears and they come every night without reason meaning why ah oh oh

When all is well I get nervous, something's missing
If only you could tell me it's okay, and me listen, cause
already,
All is well, and I know it, when I see you you don't need to tell me it's okay cause I believe that it already is already is

already is

I always sleep so much better when it's raining
