I've been mistaken
Your swindler once again
Now there's no question
I I was wrong

And now I stand alone
Just standing in your throne
And your true colors shown
You don't belong

ooh

And now I'm lost
And now I run from you
And now I see
Just how I bleed from you ooh and all the lies, all the lies How could I let you in

And now it's clear
I went along for the ride

ow

uh, uh, uh, ow

Hey, Mr. Merry Man
I know you'll come again Until you find just what your looking for

You'll find your little lamb
Or would ya leave again
I know I'd bet you'd stay for more

And now I'm lost
And now I run from you
oh, and now I see

oh, and all the lies, all the lies How could I let you in

And now it's clear
I went along for the ride

And now I'm finding out
You were nothing 'bout
I oh, what I thought you were

And now I understand It's how you work your plan
First your warm, and then you just burn

And now I'm lost
And now I run from you
oh, and now I see

how could I let you in
And now it's clear

And now I'll make my way Through another day
I, cause I know better now
You'll drop another line
On someone else's time
But in me you still resound

And now I'm lost

How could I let you in
But now it's clear

uh, uh, uh, ow

ow, ow
