Here I lie awake
And more than blood runs through these veins these veins
It's just a case of morning sting
Well take this idle mind
And fill it which you will, you'll search, you'll find
A fatal case of morning sting

Well watch him as he goes
Living in a golden afternoon
That I'll never know.

Burn me, give me praise
Whatever is convenient to arrange
Oh bring it to me on a string
While coveting a remedy
That only love can bring, but my disease
Is just a case of morning sting

Well watch him as he goes
Living in a golden afternoon
That I'll never know

Picture perfect
She'll follow his icy politic
Can't cut a girl in bloom

Cover me now
I'm bare in these dirty sheets
Can I get out? Get out,
And find me some peace.

It's just a case of
It's just a case of
It's just a case of
(Oh...)
Morning Sting
